

Pet Show & Pet Fun Show

Chairperson: Mountain Valley Veterinary Clinic 304-337-8080

Pet Show Rules:

1. Check-in for the Pet Show as well as the show will be held in the main livestock barn.
2. All animals must be current on vaccines. Please contact the chairperson in regards to your individual animal's required vaccines.
3. All animals must be free of obvious disease/sickness.
4. All animals must be properly controlled, ie on a leash or in a cage or pet carrier.
5. No animals that show aggressive tendencies are permitted to show.
6. No pregnant animals are permitted to show.
7. Farm animals ARE NOT considered pets and thus are not allowed to be shown in the pet show.
8. No birds nor reptiles are allowed to be shown.
9. All animals in the pet show will be judged based on a number of factors including but not limited to the following:
 - a. Health
 - b. Structure and conformation
 - c. Person's ability to handle the animal
 - d. Person's knowledge of the animal

Awards:

The top three in each class will receive ribbons corresponding to their place. The winner of each breeding class will return for the Best of Show contest. The best show winner will receive a Rosette.

Categories:

1. Canines (dogs)
 - a. Retrievers
 - b. Working/herding
 - c. Spaniels
 - d. Terriers
 - e. Toy/Miniatures
 - f. Hunting dogs
 - g. Mixed breed
2. Felines (cats)
 - a. Domestic short hair
 - b. Domestic long hair
 - c. Purebred
3. Exotics
 - a. Classes will be determined after entries have been submitted
4. Fun Show- Winners will be announced in each of the following categories (to be held directly after the pet show)
 - a. Owner and Pet Look-a-like contest
 - b. Best Costumed/Dressed Pet
 - c. Best owner and pet hair style
 - d. Best decorated pet carrier